Evangelist Tony and Elisha Cruz

TONY'S TESTIMONY

Growing up in the Bronx, New York City, Tony was often surrounded by drugs and violence. After losing his father at the age of seven, he was raised by his single mother. As a teenager, he got involved with street activity. One day he was invited to an outreach where he heard a relevant message that reached him with a solid presentation of the gospel. It was that night he realized his life needed something different. Tony put his trust in the Lord that night and later received the call of God at the age of sixteen. It was then that he set out to witness and has shared his testimony with many in church settings and outreaches. With passion and conviction, Tony now speaks across the country to people about the life changing message of hope and the purpose found in Jesus Christ.
